Excerpt: . . . us and, what is of far greater importance, do not advance under our rule as they should. Meanwhile there had gradually been reaching me through the proper channels, as everything does on the Zone even to our ice-water, the various coupon-books and the like indispensable to Zone life and the proper pursuit of plain-clothes duty. Distressing as are statistics the full comprehension of what might follow requires the enumeration of the odds and ends I was soon carrying about with me. A brass-check; police badge; I. C. C. hotel coupon-book; Commissary coupon-book; 120-Trip Ticket (a booklet containing blank passes between any stations on the P. R. R. , to be filled out by holder) Mileage book (purchased by employees at half rates of 2 12 cents a mile for use when traveling on personal business) 24-Trip Ticket (a free courtesy pass to all gold employees allowing one monthly round trip excursion over any portion of the line) Freight-train pass for the P. R. R. ; Dirt-train and locomotive pass for the Pacific division; ditto for the...
