UNPLUG AND WAKE UP: CONTEMPLATIONS FOR THE SOUL

BookBaby, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 211 x 137 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book. If you have reached a point in your life, like I did some time ago, where you are asking questions like: what is my purpose? What is the purpose of others? What s the point of our existence? Why I am here? Then this book is for you. I asked all these questions and many more over the years, so I read books, searched the internet, spoke with spiritual people, joined various groups, meditated, but no answers and no information quite satisfied me. I just knew I was here for a reason, but could never find or understand what it was; this led to immense frustration, as I just felt I had forgotten my purpose. I lived an ordinary life (still do), with many of the struggles we all find ourselves facing and whilst embroiled in overcoming these day-to-day struggles, my search for truth and purpose faded, until years later life gave me a slap . My reasonably comfortable life was turned upside down through a personal experience and the result set me off again on my quest for answers. A lot older and a little wiser, with the same burning questions I took up my search. There was so much conflicting information on the Internet, so many platforms and groups exposing the truth , so many opinions; it all began to overwhelm me with more questions than I had answers. In the end, internally, something just screamed Stop, stop! The voice within telling me that I was looking in the wrong place, as I was always searching for answers from an outside source, the only truth is what we can find within ourselves, my source, only then will I truly understand....
