WestBow Press, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . God, this just doesn't make any sense! God, how can you let this happen? Have you ever silently thought something like that to yourself-or maybe even said it out loud? Dan and Sue Metcalf have. They know the deepest pain that life in a broken world can bring. Their beloved son, Matthew, was diagnosed with cancer. Surely he would get better. But he didn't. They realized the deepest pain a human being can ever know-the loss of their son. But through Matthew's courageous battle, they realized something else-God's sufficiency. Through the loss of their son they also realized great gain-God's abundant mercy. This book is their story. It's Matthew's story. But it is also God's story. It's a story of God's grace and a story of God's sufficiency. It's about the discovery that God really is enough. - Phil Hopper, pastor of Abundant Life Baptist Church A portion of the proceeds from the sale of this book will go to the Matthew Metcalf Memorial Scholarship Fund at Life Christian Academy in Tacoma, Washington, and also to St. Jude Cancer Research Center in Memphis, Tennessee.
