Read Books, United Kingdom, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . This early works on Tuscan Sculptures of the Fifteenth century was originally published in 1902, This little collection is intended as a companion volume to Greek Sculptures, a previous issue of the Riverside Art Series. The two sets of pictures, studied side by side, illustrate clearly the difference in the spirit animating the two art periods represented. The Tuscan sculpture of the Renaissance was developed under a variety of forms, of which as many as possible are included in the limits of our book: the equestrian statue, the sepulchral monument, the ideal statue of saint and hero, as well as various forms of decorative art applied to the beautifying of churches and public buildings both without and within. Many of the earliest books, particularly those dating back to the 1900 s and before, are now extremely scarce and increasingly expensive. We are republishing these classic works in affordable, high quality, modern editions, using the original text and artwork.
